rited with good feelings.

sions, of these Indians, who inhabit the great, having written some of the early parts of that work. and sometimes South of Red River.

The Witchetas, consisting of several bands, some living North and others South of Red River. Those North are the Towecash & Waches. They Important omenchants .- An action was tri-have no fixed residences, but wander from the Cross has Bates, the deputy post master of this city, on-Timbers on the Arkausas, Canadian and Red River, to the Rocky Mountains; and are somesioners.

concurrence to the arrangements made.

been hired by a new Abelition Church, for their religiuse, a certain portion of the time for their religiThe separate enclosures reached their destination

From the Boston Gazette.

Advertiser of vesterday;

farther notice.

By order of the Board.

MARY S PARKER, President. Thompson! Yesterday upon a mere rumor that he was to lecture before the Temale Anti-slavery Society, that part of Washington street in the neighborhood of Amory Hall was filled with a their intentions were we have no means of knowing. but thought we could read judge Lynch quite lien Hall, it was publicly announced in one of the morning papers that the lecture would be postponed to another opportunity, and yet the impu dent scoundrel privately engaged Ritchie Hall for the same afternoon, and at 4 o'clock, about forty women were collected in that room, over Mr. Calliver's store, to listen to an address from him. But to the credit of our citizens he was not permitted to hold forth, and his weak and deluded followers retired to their respective homes. Mr. the costs. Thompson was no where to be found.

It was reported last evening that, on complaint of the mayer, Thompson had been bound over to keep the peace. This perhaps is the best disposition that can be made of the scoundrel by the city authorities; but the " citizens generally" would like to use him up in some other way.

Vermont .- No Governor chosen yet. There were eleven ballats on Tuesday, which were much the same as before-Palmer 110-Paine 43-Bradley 70. The balloting was to be resumed nex

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19. The Jackson ticket has succeeded fally in N y Jersey, but it is contended, nevertheless, that the Whigs term a majority in the State [National Gaz, Count Survilliers (Joseph Bonaparte) and suite landed yesterday in this city from the packet ship | Received up to 1st c Monongahela. He was welcomed cordially by his many personal friends, and appeared to be in excellent health. The Count intends to pass the rest | Exported to Foreign Ports during of his life in this country. Ib.

Recovery of a large part of the money stolen of from the Bank at Savannah .- In consequence of Manufactured in Virginia information received at the Police Office in this eity a few weeks back, two Police Officers were sent to Savannah, who have recovered $69,700 of the money which was stolen from the Bank.

Duel in the Mediterranean .- To prevent misconstruction or unnecessary apprehension by relations and friends, we are induced to mention that the principals in the late fatal duel, fought at Gergenti, were Lieut. Stuart, and acting Lieut. Turner of the U. S. ship Delaware. Smart was severely wounded, and died in twenty-four hours.

[N. Y. Gazette.

SICKNESS AT NEW ORLEANS. The New Orleans American of the 23 hult, after mentioning the large number of deaths that occurred in that city during the work ending the 25th alt. says :- " We are inclined to the belief that the increase may be attributed to the arosu d number of arrivals. Many persons whose imprudence we are at a loss to qualify, after passing the summer away, have just returned in the most dangerous season. We a lyise those who are away not to be too hasty. We will give them a faithful bulletin of the health of the city, that they may judge for themselves when it is prudent to return."

We understand, says the New York Daily Ad-

play and Chemistry in Guy's and St. Thomas's on a railroad, There is no doubt that this arrangement will be Hospitale, London; one of the founders of the mical Society of London, for two years-and the high, We learn that there are three families, or divi- first Editor of the Library of Useful Knowledge, preceded him. R. Compiler.

have fixed villages, and raise cornand vegetables. ed in the court of Common Pieas vesterday, to reco-The Kioaways are the third family. They ver the sum of two hundred dollars of Mr. Barnatimes, though not often, found South of Red Riv- our most respectable merchants-being desirous of er. As many different terms have been used in transmitting a large sum of money to a Mr. Charles designating these Indians, we have thought it M'Farland of Columbus, Georgia, applied to the many different terms have been used in transmitting a large sum of money to a Mr. Charles gotten treasure were embarked, induced the belief of the President, since would be acceptable to remove the confusion oc- defendant to insure its safe delivery, at the tame exsioned by an imperfect knowledge of them, and time effering to pay him a certain graming on the give their divisions as reported by the Commis- amount of the remittance in a dioling. The terms were mutually agreed apon, and on the 13th of From some cause not known, the Kioaways did not attend; but we learn that a deputation of their tea thousand dollars in a letter directed to his Co-Chiefs was expected at Fort Gibson, to give their habbs correspondent-the amount consisting of We further learn, that the Commissioners have

U. S. bank notes of a thousand dollars each.

This letter and contents were delivered into the very judiciously inserted a provision in the treaty, hands of Mr. Bates, who received also his stipulainculcating the desire of the United States upon the Indians, that they remain at peace with Mexi- ceats. Three days after this transaction, the O'clock, Mark Winstow committed suicide in Le-[Washington Globe, plaintiff sent to the same individual, an additional ver- tt jail, by opening the jugular vein with a ra-A Stopper.-Julien Hall, in Beston, has lately notes, and under precisely similar circumstances. Prison for life. He left in his cell a letter to his be shall close the avenues to the Hall, and that no which were in that part of the country, at that pe- society, with the rest of my friends. Oh! how I essembly for such purpose shall be holden in it. riod (in the month of February in the present year,) could be burried on, and unbeknown to you, I can-The following notice appeared in the Darly M'Farland, of course, advised the plaintiff of the may meet in another and a better world. deficiency, and dehited him with it. On being ap-The Boston Female Anti Slavery Society have prised of the facts communicated to him from Cobeen informed that the proprietor and lesser of lambus, Mr. Patterson called upon Mr. Bates, and Congress Hall, forbids that the annal meeting of lafter remonstrating with him for substituting bills said society should be holden at that place, under of a description different from those which had the apprehension that the building is endangered been entrusted to him for transportation, insisted by the determination of men of property and upon being indomnified from any losses that might standing, to put a stop to the meeting, let the accene in consequence of such unauthorised prolutely refused to settle it, or to concede to its equi- concerning some change, and be becoming energy

E		he Petersbur D FROM
		eco. Co les.
In 18:			,639
18:	12 27.0			5,556
18	13 20,7	54 20	,141	2,395
183	34 25,4	08 31	,045	2,170
		SPECTED
N.	Pass	sep. Rer	TSED. S	TOCK.
1 10	Hib	ds. H	hds. 1	at Oct.
In 18	31 28,3	338 18	3,239 1	15,572
18	32 21,7	53 15	,846	11,950
18	33 20,6	-55 = 13	1,521	12,346
18	34 20,6	(10) I I	,857	1,591
18	35 27,5	100	1,991	15,626
STAT	EMENT	OF COTT	'ON FOR	VIR-GINIA.
Stock of	a band 1st	October, 18	3-1	150 bale
Receive	dunto 1st	October, 18;	35 33.5	350

the 12 months ending 30th al-New York, Oct. 19. Do. Coastwise for same peri-5,400 ---- 33,297

Stock on hand 1st October, 1835 503 bales Extract of a letter from a gentleman in St. John,

N. B., dated Oct. 24: them as lightly as a hen upon her broad. The carousal and drunkenness. British Ministry esteem it policy to conciliate the The fire originated in the garret, where it was people here at almost any sacrifice, merely to se- probably communicated to clothes hanging to dry, cure to themselves the timber trade in times of by a drunken woman who had been up several war. On all other accounts, it would be far het- times during the evening and night with a light. ter for England that all her North American pos- The boys asleep in the garret were waked by the sessions should secode from her protection. For smoke, and communicated the fact to the miserable myself, I should be sorry to be assured that a uni- inmates below, who were still overtheir cups-One on of any of those Colonies with the United States of the number, we hear, was so beastly drunk, that

It is a matter of congratulation to the friends of | FORMIDADLE RIVAL .- There is a report in cir- she went up stairs, and probably becoming beold William and Mary, that the place vacated in culation that Messrs. Stuckton, Calvert, and wildered in the smoke, perished in the flames! that institution by Professor Rogers has been filled others, capitalists, are about to level and Mc- Such are some of the fruits of an Irish wake in = WESTERN INDIANS.

We learn that the Commissioners appointed to the new Professor, who has taken the chair of pike Road, and run thereon Locomotive Carriagtreat with the Western Indians, have returned to Chemistry, is a gendeman of unquestionable abili- es-after the model of those employed on some of Fort Gibson, after having successfully accemplish- ties, and of a high reputation. He was quite a the turnpike roads in England. If this report be death of Phillis Walke, a black woman, who was

The Pour Praya Insurance and the President. Having some curiosity to see have met upon such an occa- for several years. Mr. M. was also Professor of dise transported up and down the Ohio river in stand there is a letter from Bernardo Raggio, mas- the remains of one of our old national ships, we this these wild Indians have met upon such an eccasion. They have heretofore kept the frontier in a stant of alarm, and have attacked, with equal instant of the United States and th are the most numerous, but who have no fixed or Professor in an attitude of high respectability, and Voters," held in Baltimore on the 12th instant, it tion left Praya. It will be remembered that the ordering his men to push off, we soon found ourpermanent villages, and follow the berds of buffa- give strong assurance that he is amply qualified to was resolved, that there be a State Celebration at great body of the soldiers implicated in this horrid selves upon the broad deck of the Frigate. We ors, with their moveable lodges, sometimes North succeed worthly the distinguished gentleman who Baltimore, on Wednesday, the 28th instant, "in transaction were thrust on board a polacea and had brought no letter of introduction to any of the honor of the triumph achieved at the late elections, ordered to proceed to the United States; while officers, and were unacquainted with a single indiby the Anti Van Boren voters of Maryland;" and the rich treasure, sacked from the city, was put on vidual on board; but on informing the first lieuresolution, to attend the Celebration.

vices and of condolence for his loss.

From Briggs' Boston Bulletia.

sum of ten thousand dollars, also in U. S. bank zer. He was to have been conveyed to the State wife, of which the following is a copy :-

My dear wife-(thou best of women) most deep ous worship. This privilege was seized upon to pit Thompson in to harangue a company of ladies. But the lessor has given notice in the papers, that at a discount of one per cent. At this time the e-missions of the U.S. Bank were at par, and Mr. not conceive—but alas! so it is. I freely forgive my e-emics—as I hope to be forgiven; I hope we Commercial Bank at Albany, has taken passage at From your affectionate and loving husband, MARK WINSLOW. N. B. Farewell my living friends, Thursday morning, 1 M. Winslow.

Oct. 15th, 1835. 1

They therefore notify the members and the plannin's coursel, did make a promise to refund ever consummated by the hand of man. This morpublic generally, that the meeting will not take place on the suniversary of the formation of the that he was requested to pay to Mr. M'Farland- cabinet maker, living on Walnut street, a few doors society, as was at first proposed, and has bitherto but on demand subsequently being presented to above Columbia street, returned from market, and been their practice, but will be postponed until bim for the sam of two hundred dollars, be abso- a quarrel ensued between her and her husband, Under these circumstances, Mr. Patterson insti- completely crushed one side of it; seeing the ef-Is it not altogether too had that our peaceable tuted the present suit, and conclusively established feet of his blow upon his wife, the wretch assaulted city should be kept in a state of excitement and commotion by such a foreign vagabond as Geo.

Thompson's Vesterday many approach to the facts as above stated.

For the defence, it was contended that Mr. Bates and almost entirely severed the head of one from had not especially contracted to remit the actual its body, and with a blow despatched the other. his two children, who were shricking at her side, notes deposited with him by plaintiff, and that the The elder was about 4 years of age, and the crowd of people waiting for his arrival .- What dollars of good and current money, without refer- bout three and a half oiles from the scene of his argacity and attention to business. It was also insisted upon by the defendant's counsel, conducted to the jail, followed by an immense strongly depicted in most of their countenances, that the bills of the Manhattan Bank were not pro- crawd, who were so exasperated, that they no . VEO ESE: DE SE H. S. W. T. N. T. S. T. F. F. J. Verily, " the curse never fell upon our nation on perly at a discount in Georgia at the period of the doubt would have killed him, had be not been hurtil now." After having been forbil the use of Ju- remittances in question, but that, on the contrary, ried off on horseback to the prison. On his arrest, they were of as full currency and value as the he stated that he had murdered his wife, and he notes of the United States Bank.

At the conclusion of the testimony, the counsel children, because he was determined to leave no addressed the jury for their respective clients, and loffspring to be disgraced by his crime. We have after a luminous charge from Judge Ulshoefler, on never seen our community in a state of greater exthe law appectaining to the case before them, they citement than that occasioned by the horrors we retired to consider their verdict, and in a few mo- bave described. The murderer is a man about ments returned with an award in favor of the plain- 28 years of age, medium height, dark hair and tiff, for the full amount of the claim, together with eyes, high check bones, aquiline nose, narrow chin, a red scar on his left cheek, and a countenance, on the whole, unmarked by any expression of evil, but on the contrary of rather amable ap-

P. S. Cowan was first overhauled by Mr. S. Lippincott, and drew a knife from his pocket, but immediately gave it up and surrendered himself, on being threatened with a blow from a stick, by Mr. L .- the officers Messrs. Madison and Brooks, accompanied by another person, arrived at the instant, and he was secured. COMMONWEALTH v. JOHN U. WARING FRANKFORT, Ky. Oct. 10 .- The argument in this case was concluded on Saturday last, Leiween 9 and 10 o'clock at night, and the case was then submitted to the jury. Saturday being the last day of the term, the jury had but a few hours for defiberation-they were called juto court at a little before twelve, and upon informing the judge that there was no prespect of their agreeing upon a verdict, they were discharged. The prisoner was fident of giving satisfaction in quality and prices, to then remanded to jail to await his trial at another all who wish to buy. term. The trial of this cause excited a great deal of interest, and a great crowd was collected to posing his Stock, as it is made up of Goods in alwitness its progress and termination.—Counsel for most every branch of the mercantile business. the Commonwealth, Mason Brown, Esq. (Com. Attorney,) and Lewis Sanders, jr .- For the accused, Mr. Levine, Mr. Woods, Col. F. Johnson and Benjamin G. Burks, Esq. The presecution and the defence were both ably conducted. [Commonwealth.

From the Newark (N. J.) Advertiser

INTEMPERANCE, GAMBLING, FIRE AND DEATH. - A horrible climax, but as natural as the connec-"We have no news in this cool region, except a tion of cause and effect. A shocking illustration ocrumor that Governor Campbell of this Province curred vesterday. Between 12 and 1 o'clock last has had instructions from the Governor General, night the town was alarmed by the cry of fire, pro-Lord Gosford, to have troops in readiness to pro- ceeding from two dwelling houses in Quarry st., ceed to Quebec at a moment's warning, as Papi- occupied by several Irish families. So far as we sean, the French Canadian and Speaker of the have been able to learn, the fire probably origina-Parliament of Lower Canada, has assumed the ted in carelessness, resulting from a gross intemauthority to convoke the General Assembly. We perance and rioting among the occupants. About cannot, however, believe that a faction in that nine o'clock in the evening (it being Sunday,) one country will dare to try its strength at present with of the Constables, with a citizen, in pursuit of an Great Britain. That the time is not far distant when Irishman who escaped from the Bergen County all those Provinces will be severed from the mo- Jail on Saturday night, entered one of the houses ther courtry, there is little doubt; and yet there unexpectedly, and supprised a party round a table, never were colonies more kindly ruled than those. playing cards! Other circumstances lead to the The home government, as they style it, sits upon belief that the house during the day was a scene of first severely flogged, and then had one of his Mexican States to remain in union with them, and tenant-it appears, met the jest retribution of cars cut off. What was the specific offence with the vast plains that divide them will never be the loadisome habits of the house. Instead of abode of aught but buffaloes." [N. Y. Adv. running out when the alarm was communicated,

LONG LIFE .- A Norfolk paper mentions the Visit to the British Frigate President-Naval ed the object of their mission. A treaty of amity distinguished man in Europe, having been profestored by them, between the United States or of Natural Philosophy in the Rayal Institute be, the Baltimore and Washington Rail Road will ty, (Va.) in the year 1720, and consequently, at and the Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws, Osages, of Great Britain, in London, for 15 years, the have a formidable rival. We believe the Locomes the time of her death, was in the one hundred and Quebec. This display of force may not have been Senecas and Quapaws. Nothing occurred to in- was Editor of the Quarterly Journal of Science, fives on common roads can be made to run as last, fifteenth year of age. She was mother of twenty, wholly accidental at this time; and the unquiet terrupt the general harmony, and all parties sepawith ground religions.

who by accidental at this time; and the diamond, who have been cars with their trains, one children, and her descendants are almost innormal physical phy > that she had been lost at sea. Raggio's letter, however, we learn, informs that this vessel made for > timber of the old ship, and her keel is the ever, we learn, informs that this vessel made for timber of the old ship, and her keel is the Maggadore, (on the coast of Barbary) where she same. She is still remarkable for her superior A tribute of respect to the late Mr. Barry, was arrived safe; but quite unexpectedly to those on sailing. Her model has not been changed. She paid by the Mail Contractors now at Washington, board she was immediately seized, by order of the mounts fifty-two guns, and has a crew of 380 men. on the 11th inst. They passed resolutions ex- Portuguese Consul there-and Lopez and his com- Her full complement is 450. Every part of the pressive of their estimate of his character and ser- rades were arrested and imprisoned. A Porto- ship is in fine order; and the atmost cleanliness is guese frigate, upon the receipt of this intelligence, every where seen, from the cock pit to the Admiwas despatched to Moggadore, to bring home the ral's cabin. The men were engaged in various ocmoney and other valuables plandered at Port Pra- cupations-the middles were many of them at their ya, and also the captive insurgents. Capt. Rag- desks, probably engaged in "writing home"-and gio also says in his letter that the Portuguese Go. the centinels were pacing their narrow rounds. vernment have determined to send a vessel of war. Admiral Sir George Cockburn, who commands on to this country, with a demand of the delivery of the Brazilian station, has his head quarters on the Portuguese now in prison in Richmond! [Norfoll: Herald.

> Van Baren candidate."
>

Wilmington, (Delaware) for Hayana. There is no doubt of his being ultimately captured: but we lections. On her deck, the heroic Decatur had man's institute and ever returning, perental fear there is little chance for the recovery of the tredden previous to her capture; and there those petite. Appetite, quoth Stephen-for Stephen

A caning fracas took place in Salem, Massachusetts, on the 5th instant, between Lieutenant Wilkinson of the Navy, and Lieut. Miller, son of the Collector of the port of Salem. Wilkinson was the aggressor, and had prevously challenged Miller to fight a duel. Both were arrested, and the former held to bail in the sum of 1000 dollars, for his appearance at the Police Court; but not being the enemy's squadron, which was watching her deable to procure it, he was committed to prison, Miller was at ence discharged.

Snow fell invarious parts of Lower Canada on the 30th ult, to the depth of 6, and even 12 inches.

D. Beers, one of the most respectable brokers in squadron, a ship of equal size with the Preside at, ble bearing. As they were traveling lately along notes deposited with him by plaintil, and that the covenant made by him only bound him to send to go unper probably tw. The murderer instantly was rapidly gaining upon her.—Under these care fled, and had proceeded over Mill creek bridge, a million of dollars, the proceeds of his industry, action horizontal the sum of twenty and attention to business. ence to the description or character of the bills, crime, when he was overtaken by the officers and Digges' Lottery and Exchange Office ! 07 825,000 Highest Prize 20 07 50 Prizes of $1,000 : 40 Virginia Petersburg Lottery.

CLASS, No. 11, for 1835. To be drawn at Alexandria, on Saturday, the 24th day of October, 1835, 75 NUMBERS-11 DRAWN BALLOTS. Scheme!

I Prize of $25,000 10 Prizes of 1 " " 10,000 20 " 4,000 20 " 1 2,500 30 " " .. " 1,587 40 " " 50 " " 1,000 Besides 60,-50,-10,-30,-&c. &

Tickets $8-Halves $4-Quarters $2. For sale at DIGGES' OFFICE. Oct. 19

A CARD.

John J. Parvis.

Fall and Winter Goods. From his experience in purchasing Goods, and other advantages used in his business, he feels con-

It is unnecessary to commercie the articles com-

SALT.

HAVE a lot of Salt lower than the present Mar-ket press. JOHN J. PURVIS. JOHN J. PURVIS. Sep.

Saddle and Harness Manufactory.

THE subscriber returns his thanks to his friends and the public in general, for the liberal enconragement heretofore received in his line of business, informs them, that he still continues to carry on Saddle and Harness Waking, in all its various branches, at his old stand, corner of Main-street and Alley leading to Friend's Warehouse.

He has just received, direct from the North, and general assortment of Collars, Whips and English Bridle Leather-some of which are superior to any ever offered in this market, which he is disposto sell low for CASH, or in exchange for Country Produce. He respectfully invites purchasers to call R. W. COLLINS and examine his Stock. F I wish to employ a good Saddle band, and Shop and Harness band,-for such constant employment will be given. R. W. C

THE subscriber, having determined to continvertiser, that a letter from New Orleans, received should ever be effected. Texas is the only territo- it was necessary to drag him out in order to save is prepared to make liberal advances on all proin this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that another instance of punry that can be added with any safety or propriety
in this city, mentions that can be added with any safety or propriety in this city, menti a inflicted in that city, upon a physician, who bably be ours. It is too far separated from the Another female—the wife of Patrick Doyle, a hopes to receive a share of the business formerly bestowed on Holcombe & Tyree.

wiw if

RICHARD TYREE

MISCELLANEOUS:

Correspondence of the Boston Atlas.

Quenec, September. Reminiscence.

been instrumental in calling it forth. The Pique sailed on Wednesday, leaving behind the Forte [Louisville Advertiser. were afterwards apprehended and are now confined in Richmond. This letter is written from Masshore, and hailing the young middy, who sat in the sions, of these Indians, who inhabit the great having written some of the early parts of that work.

Western prairie. These are the Camanches, who These services, and this experience, place the new of the of Conventions of Free and Independent which Lopez and the other leaders of the insurrection.

Maryland Whig Celebration.—At a meeting deirn, and gives information of the schooner in which Lopez and the other leaders of the insurrection.

Maryland Whig Celebration.—At a meeting deirn, and gives information of the schooner in which Lopez and the other leaders of the insurrection.

Maryland Whig Celebration.—At a meeting deirn, and gives information of the schooner in which Lopez and the other leaders of the insurrection.

Maryland Whig Celebration.

Maryland Whig Celebration.

He politely offered us a seat by his side, and then the other leaders of the insurrection.

Maryland Whig Celebration.

He politely offered us a seat by his side.

Maryland Whig Celebration.

 Whig voters throughout the State were invited, by board another vessel, in which the ring enders of tenant that we were American gentlemen, desirous the insurrection took passage, promising to follow of seeing the ship, he received us with much courthem. But it appears from the letter of Raggio, tesy and cordiality, and although there were seve-MISSISSIPPI SENATOR.—The Louisville that it was their intention to steer another course, ral parties on deck, who had come upon the same Journal says, "Letters from gentlemen of extensive and keep the booty to themselves. The long time errand, yet to us he devoted the whole of his atteninformation in Mississippi lead us to believe, that which had elapsed after these two vessels left Port tion, showing us every part of the Frigate, and teneither Mr. Poindexter or Mr. Pittimmer, who is Praya, during which nothing was heard of the one board the President. His family are at present with him. After showing us all the objects of interest about the gig to be manned to wait our pleasure. We was called upon to administer to the enparious n soon afterwards took our leave, very favorably int- of the law. Neither green turtle nor chowder. ty with which the oarsmen struggled against it. As we looked back upon the President, we is not worth while to go into a detail of the ca'ses and ale ! is not worth while to go into a detail of engagement. Suffice it to say, that the no-engagement. Suffice it to say, that the no-fact, we would think this should break it. In s 1815, upon a cruise to the Pacific Ocean. In Strasy a profession, the asperities of fortune crossing the bar at Sandy Hook, she struck, and lay thumping upon it till near morning. She got parture. When day light appeared danger en- say it, since we never liked his cookery. But a compassed her or all sides. The only resource fery man to his taste. was to escape by her well known superiority of I sailing .- This was tried, but to no purpose. Horr keel had been injured on the bar and she was oth . More of their lordships.—We understand the erwise so much crippled, that her sailing was grea at it was not in this city alone, and in breaking land ly impeded. It was clearly perceptible, that the and watchmen's heads, that the marquis of Water A Respectance Referement.-Mr. Joseph Endymion, the headmost frigate of the bost he ford and his gallant competers exhibited their action, hoping that he might succeed in dismasting. They went abourd in the garb of common sailors the Endymion, or crippling her, so that he taight but as their inclinations were somewhat more a still have a chance to escape. A running fight of piring than their dress seemed to indicate, the about an hour's duration ensued, in which, although the President was much damaged, her op- quarters. ponent was entirely disabled, and must have In a word, the gallant young noblemen better squadron, consisting of the Pomone and Tenedos enactment of such 'shines,' that the captain was frigate, come to her rescue.—There being no al- called to reduce them to order. ternative, but to continue the engagement at such "What are you doing here in the ladies' cabin? unequal odds-a frigate of nearly the same size on -said the captain. either side-or to surrender, Decatur ordered a "D-n it! what's that to you?" replied the gun to be fired leeward, and the flag of the Presi- marquis of Waterford. dent to be struck.

300 of running his ship along side of the Endymion, I must tell you, my lads, that you are quite out 200 carrying her by boarding, abandoning the Presi- your latitude. The ladies' cabin is no place for 150 dent to the foc, and escaping by the swift sailing of sailors.—Clear out, and go forward." the Endymion. The word was passed for the pur- "Go forward!" echoed lord John Beresford, pose, but at the moment, the British commander, "whom do you take us to be?" as if suspecting the manceuvre, wore ship and thus "Just what you appear to be-four drunker, defeated the enterprise, which must have proved unmannerly vagabonds. Out with you." successful, and which would have stood without a "We're gentlemen," said Lord Roselyn. parallel in the annals of naval warfare. The cap- "Gentlemen!" repeated the captain contemp-Some of the English papers were quite lavish of where you belong." their applause upon the Endymion-desirous to "We're Irish noblemen," said the marquis of give to her alone the credit of the victory. The Waterford, "and no sailors," story did not last long, even if it were for a time "If you're Irish noblemen, or any other noblebelieved.—The whole of the fleet put in their men," said the captain coolly, "you ought to be-

who were killed in the action, on board of the Pres- fine them there." ident-One of them, Lieut. Hamilton, was the son of Hon. Paul Hamilton of S. Carolina, Secretary ble lordships, they conveyed them forward, in spite of the Navy. He was a midshipman under Deca- of their struggles, swearing at the unmannerly Yantur in the frigate United States, at the capture of kees, remonstrances, and threats of vengeance, and the Macedonian. On the arrival of the United kept them there during the remainder of the pas-States at New London with her prize, young Ham- sage, ilton was singled out by Decatur to carry, express to Washington, the news of the capture. He AN ENTIRE RELIGIOUS COMMUNITY. accordingly departed with the colors of the British frigate without communicating his intelligence to the Narrative of his visit to the American Churchgovernment, in the evening, he learned that there Granville, in Ohio: was a grand ball going on, given by the citizens of the place, in honor of the victory of the Constitution over the Guerriere. The Chief Magistrate, tice. all the officers of the government, and commodore from New England. On arriving at this spot, they Hull, with all the fashion and beauty of the place, gave themselves to prayer, that they might be diball room, and calling out his father before be entered, showed him the Macedonian's colors, and announced her capture. The joy of the father may be imagined. Leading his son by the arm, he entered the saloon, and there displaying the captured colors, he communicated to the brilliant as- all go to church; and there are four hundred in a Hamilton was made a lieutenant on the spot by Mr. lars a year to religious institutions. One plain stowing upon him most undisputed tokens of their favor and admiration. It was an hour to Hamilton in which the emotions and the happiness of years of ordinary life were crowded. Little more than two years afterwards, he fell mortally wounded in the encounter with the Endymion.

a desire to accumulate, but some great reverse of fortune. Then they are only sensible of the dangerous eminence upon which they stood, when they have fallen from it. They despised security and This report and the names of the parties, he reads gerous eminence upon which they stood, when they competence when they were within their reach, more keenly to regret fleir less, when they most sensible of their value. The pursuit of w is very much like the pursuit of fame; h sought with equal arder, and both fail to wants of the aspiring mind. Both are link affected by those fluctuations in opinions a ions, which rule the world and give laws to and both, though capable of bestowing happiness, often render their possessors It is the slave who digs up the diamond who make money have no time to enjoy; leave that pleasure to their spendthrift hen less, indeed they have the-what shall we -- the happiness to lose it before they die save their children from dissipation and What a moral we have in the fortunes phen Holt, of New York, whose great car ace at the corner of Pearl and Fulton stree been knocked down by the auctioneer for one dred and seventy-five thousand dollars, a lint one half of its first cost. Stephen Holt bee career as a humble victualler in Fulton w cellar. By economy, frugality, and indus rapidly acquired a fortune. A few years sine lived in a large four story house on the corne Fulton and Water streets, and was consider rich man. He must then have been worth a hundred thousand dollars. He was still mas money, in a sure, and safe and easy way, it Steph n Holt's mind expanded with the mer of his fortune and the growth of his person, s stoop one day, and casting his eyes upon block fronting on Pearl, Fulten and Water sine thought he, might be reared spon such a sp what a Babel of bed rooms, halls, parlors, larde bars, shops, and kitchens, with a white flag fly from the cupola, displaying a large green tar Stephen, thou art a man-and a great one. T fame of thee and thy white palace-thy stew roasts, boils, and frys-shall live in the memory all good caters, benceforth and faraver. It be done! Stephen sold all he was worth to chase the lot; then mertgaged the lot to boild house. The ambition of Stepden was grand and Holt's Hotel was, and so, the wooder o city. But the eating of his guests did not a the eating of the interest of his betreved that And although, Stephen had become a great and large man, and a reasy caterer to the appetite. the frigate, Mr. Currie, the first lieutenant, ordered his customers, his skill day not avail him when pressed with every thing we had seen. The curtisfied that appeare; and so the palace was disla rent of the river is very strong at Quebec, and as up one day on a piece of parchase at, and Stephe we entered the gig, we saw its force in the difficultion! this last infirmity of noble minds! Sper thought he had calculated securely, for his base As we looked back upon the Freshiem, we could not forbear indulging in some painful recol- was the haman stomach and his superstructure. gallant spirits, Babbitt, Hamilton and Howell, who was a good fiver himself-seldom fails; and as fell in the action, had been seen in the prime who ears, pays, ergo I pay. Go te-thinkest then of their days and in the fuliness of hope. It because thou art virtuous, there shall be no more have been greatly blunted and dissolved, our fat friend," as Brammell said of George IV struck her colors, had not the other portion of the themselves to the ladies' cabin, and there fell to the 8500 Soon after the commencement of the engage- as I happen to command this boat, it is part of my " It's a good deal to me," said the captain, " for menat, Decatur had conceived the intrepid design duty to see that people in their proper places; an tured frigate was conveyed to Bermuda, where she tuously—" I must say you have a very genteel way was repaired and ordered to England. On her ar- of showing it. But I cannot condescend to bandy rival she was found to be unfit for service, and was words with such fellows. Out you must go, and made subservient to the uses of a receiving ship, confine yourselves to the fore part of the boat, claims for the prize money, and when the amount have like noblemen. But as you come here in the came to be divided, it was distributed equally a- garb of sailors and your behaviour is such as to dismong the crews of the Endymion, Tenedos, and grace the lowest tars, you must excuse me for treating you accordingly. Here, (speaking to some of his I have spoken of the three chivalrous officers, men) take these fellows to the forecastle, and con-

From the N. Y. Transcript.

"Ay, ay," said the men, and seizing their ne-any one on the way. On arriving at the seat of es, just published, gives the following account of "Granville is a small town, which, I believe, is wholly religious. As a settlement it deserves norected in choosing their resting place in the wilderness, and enjoy the blessing of God. At first they rested with their little ones in the wagons; and the first permanent building they erected was a church for divine worship. The people retain the man, who has never allowed himself the luxury of a set of fire irons, besides what he does at home, gives one hundred dollars a year to religious objects. The present pastor is a devoted man, and very prosperous in the care of his flock. Some of his methods are peculiar, and might be objectionable elsewhere. He meets his people in dishas to pray for that member. He has overseers in the districts, who are to make an entry of all